

CALL FOR GLEN ROAD SCHOOL BIDS

The Permanent Building Committee of Wilmington, Erwin Hanke, Chairman, has issued a call for bids for the new off-Glen Road school, authorized by town vote of the Town Meeting on Sept. 14th.

Expected to cost approximately $400,000, and popularly known as the 'circular' school it is designed to have 18 sides. The multi-sided school was voted in preference to a more regular type, proposed by the School Committee, which would have cost about $22,000 more.

Bids are being advertised today, and will be opened in Room 102, of the High School, at 7:30 pm Dec. 8th, with construction to start within two weeks.

Sub-bids (i.e. of sub Contractors) will be opened before noon, on Dec. 1st, in the Roman House.

The school is expected to be ready for occupancy by Sept. 1 1959.

Architects are Baltz and Kimberly, of Melrose.

MORE GRAVEL AT SELECTMEN'S MEETING

In the non-Executive part of the Selectmen's meeting Monday evening the major portion of the evening was devoted, in one way to another, with discussions of gravel. A few pole hearings were about the only items discussed which were not pertaining to gravel.

Rene LaRivee, of Concord St. appeared at the meeting to protest what he believed would be the granting of a new gravel pit license for the Dias lot, off Concord Street (reported in last week's Town Crier).

LaRivee protested that the area already had 'illegal' pits.

Town manager Calabrese told the Selectmen that the pits in the area were either permitted usage, or non-conforming usage by reason of existing before the Zoning Laws.

Edward Curtis appeared for further discussion of his gravel pit. He had a contour plan and wanted, in addition to the right to work his pit in the area beyond Route 125 the right to cut a road through to the old Salem & Lowell RR bed, a distance somewhat under one half mile.

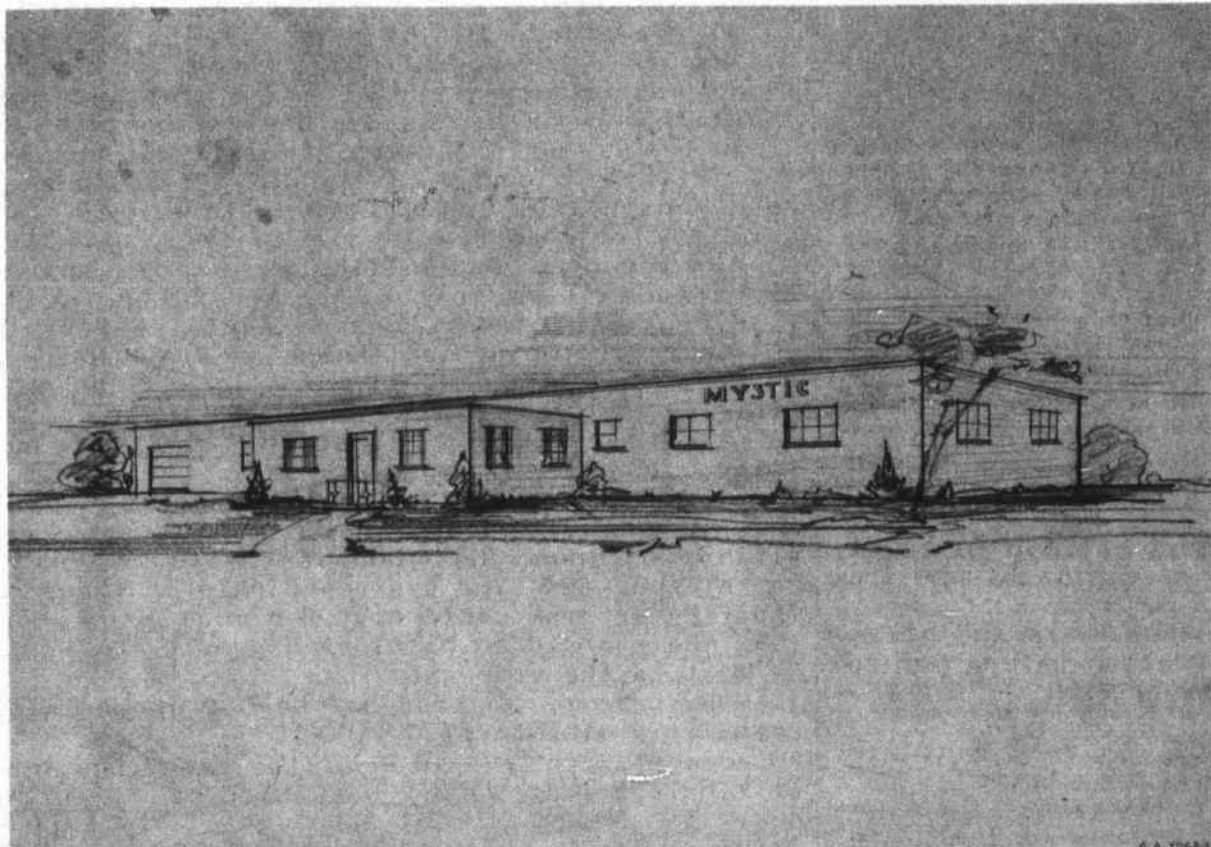

The Selectmen took his plea under advisement.

PLANNING BOARD VOTES TO RENAME PART OF WOBURN STREET

Plagued by the fact that Woburn Street is to be divided by the new Highway, the Planning Board Tuesday evening voted to recommend a change of name to 'Browns Crossing' for that part of the street which will start at Park Street and end at Andover Street.

Browns Crossing was the name of the railroad station, near the present pumping station of the same name, back as far as 1851.

The street's name cannot be changed until after a public hearing.

THE HEAD TABLE AT THE PTA MEETING
President Bert Sell, of the Wilmington PTA, hand on chin, listens to the discussions during the Monday night meeting in which it was decided not to break affiliation with the National Congress of the PTA. To the far left is Mrs. Richard E. Roles, Massachusetts Vice President of the PTA. Mrs. Joseph Keough, Secretary, records the discussion, while Ed Bradley, Treasurer, listens.

PTA VOTES TO RETAIN AFFILIATION

The members of the Executive Board of the PTA will retain, through individual membership, the Wilmington affiliation with the National Congress of the parent Teachers Association.

In a quiet meeting, Monday night, in the High School, the Wilmington PTA voted to adopt the recommendations of the Study Committee. The report was adopted on motion of Dr. William Widger.

As a result the Wilmington Parent Teachers Association, as an organization, will be dissolved, and a group of Parent-Teachers Associations will be formed for such individual schools as to so decide.

Members from the Walker School indicated that they will be the number one school to so affiliate, and members from the Junior High and High School started planning for such an organization in their school.

The Committee Report
The Committee, selected by the President to study plans or ways to reorganize the existing PTA to better serve its purpose in the growing town and school system in Wilmington, have unanimously agreed that affiliation with State and National PTA should be expanded into a system in which PTA units are established in all schools or groups of schools with each unit having representation in a Wilmington

PTA Council. It is the opinion of the Committee that the present PTA serve as a temporary Council and take whatever steps are necessary in cooperating with the Supt. of Schools and all supervising principals and all others concerned to assist in the formation of the PTA units. Further it is expected that all Mother's or Parents groups now functioning will be invited and encouraged to become units in their respective schools.

Respectfully submitted, Paul Bodensee, Chmn., Mrs. George Robertie, Mrs. Kenneth Lyons, Mrs. Joseph Keough, Frank McLean.

LYNNFIELD WINS, 8-0

Wilmington's Wildcats, white-washed for the third time this season, had only the Tewksbury game to look forward to after their loss on Saturday to the surprising upstarts from Lynnfield High School, 8-0. Here are some of the figures which tell how the Blue and White of Lynnfield (yes, Virginia, they dared to wear those colors in Wilmington) dominated the Blue and White of Wilmington:

Score	8	0
First downs	16	3
Passes	1-3	2-9
Passing yardage	18	11
Rushing yardage	208	110
Interceptions	1	1
Own fumbles recovd	2	0
Opp fumbles recovd	1	0
Plays run	71	34

Inspired, perhaps, by some of the finest student body backing ever exhibited at the high school field, the Lynnfielders played football from the opening kickoff the way the game was meant to be played.

Fourth Down Gamblers

Left halfback Steve Donnegan and fullback Bill Burbank took turns carrying the pigskin in that opening drive which began on the Lynnfield 20 and ended thirteen plays later on the 22 yard line at the opposite end of the field. Two fake kicks on fourth down featured during Lynnfield's opening gambit as they gave the enthusiastic audience a hint of what to expect later in the game. In ten fourth down attempts, visit in Lynnfield made six first downs.

PERMANENT BUILDING COMMITTEE PROPOSES CIVIC CENTER

In an executive meeting lasting about one and one half hours, Monday evening, the Permanent Building Committee proposed to the Board of Selectmen that a Civic Center be planned in the area now occupied generally by the Town Garage.

The details of the general plan had been discussed with the Planning Board, last Thursday, and had met that board's approval.

Still another meeting, Monday night, before the meeting with the Selectmen confirmed the opinions of the Board. Two members of the Planning Board, Danny Gillis and Bill Irwin, were present at this meeting, as well.

The Building Committee is under instructions to construct a police station, with the town vote specifying a site nearly across from the present Fire-Police Station.

The basic proposal of the Permanent Building Committee is that the town consider an integrated site plan which would ultimately encompass not only the Police Station (to be built immediately) but also a Town Hall, and a Public Library, when the town sees fit to erect such buildings.

The committee recognized that the town cannot afford either a new Town Hall, or a new Public Library at this time, but felt that a plan for the location of these buildings could and should be discussed now, so as to avoid losing the opportunity which presents itself at this time, for intergrated planning.

The committee, in its deliberations, stated that this was part of the problem of Capital Outlay planning for the future development of Wilmington.

The recommendation of the site on Adelaide Street, the committee felt, would tend to strengthen the architectural and commercial value of the proposed Urban Renewal Center.

The proposals of the Permanent Building Committee run against those of the Urban Renewal Plan, which would relocate housing in this site, but information from the Selectmen's Meeting, Monday night indicate that the Wilmington Housing Authority has had a change of heart, and has made other proposals for the area.

THE PRICE OF GRAVEL

The people of Wilmington are very much distressed at the fact that a gravel merchant is within this town very actively trying to find the shortest route to China, by digging straight down.

This man has won several actions in court, actions which were Civil, as distinguished from criminal complaints.

The courts have held that where the gravel pit in question was in operation before our zoning laws were adopted, the present zoning laws cannot stop him.

Okay. So that's it. But, to draw a simile, let us consider a builder who is building on a 10,000 foot lot, because it was there before we adopted our zoning laws. We cannot stop him, just as we cannot stop the gravel merchant, by the zoning laws.

But if that builder violates, for instance,
our plumbing code, he can be stopped instantly
by the Board of Health, even if that Plumbing Code were (as is the case) adopted long after the zoning law. If the builder deliberately violated the Plumbing Code he could be taken into court on a criminal complaint, and fined. If he still continued he would be in Contempt of Court, and that could prove to be really serious for the errant builder.

Our Selectmen, for the health and welfare of the people of Wilmington adopted a code of Gravel Regulations. That code is just as effective in its way as is the Plumbing Code, adopted by the Board of Health.

Why do we not get after our gravel merchant
by utilizing this means?

LET'S KEEP OUR FEET ON THE GROUND

Our Wilmington Housing Authority, empowered by law to administer the Urban Renewal Project in Wilmington has submitted, after a fashion, a preliminary plan of what they propose to do in the vicinity of Wilmington Square. The plan has precipitated a tremendous discussion among those who have seen it - even though a large part of our populace is still unaware of what seems to be proposed.

The WHA proposes a number of things, apparantly, perhaps all of which cannot be listed at one time.

Briefly, according to the plan, they propose to move every building that is now located in the rectangle between Main Street, Adelaide Street, Church Street, and Middlesex Ave. with the sole exception of the Fire Station. They propose to grade down the hill that is now in Wilmington Square, apparently lowering the Burlington Avenue Bridge at the same time. They propose to have a tremendous parking area, reaching all the way from Main Street to within a few hundred feet of the Walker School site, capable of parking about 900 cars, by a conservative estimate.

Middlesex Avenue is to be relocated, and made straight. Adelaide Street is likewise to be relocated, about 100 feet closer to Wilmington Square.

The Postoffice is to be relocated at the new corner of Middlesex Avenue and Adelaide Street, and a large dry goods store, of about the size of Weinberg's built nearby, as will a new telephone exchange.

On the other side of Main Street, close to the railroad tracks, at about where the Wilmington Plumbing Supply and Altman's Store are now located there is proposed a Medical center.

In the triangle between Middlesex Avenue and the "Wildcat" branch of the B&M RR is to be a huge septic tank installation, to provide for sewerage for this area.

All the present dwelling structures now in the area will be relocated, according to the plan, north of the relocated Adelaide Street, and south of the present homes on Clark Street.
We are told that some, if not all, will be multiple dwelling units.

We have our doubts about this program, and it is only fair to express a few.

In the first place our town meeting which authorized Urban Renewal, 26 months ago, was willing to spend $200,000 of the towns money, but at the same time expressed voluble thoughts that the program could cost too much money, and that there would be Wilmington people who would be hurt by the proposals.

Now the program that has been proposed will cost, at a minimum $1,500,000.

According to the rules of the game, the town will be asked to supply one third of the total cost, if the government approves of the expenditures. These rules are not absolute, but it would seem that the minimum cost to the town is going to be in the neighborhood of $500,000.

It is true that we now have a Democratic administration, and the chances of getting more money from Washington are thereby increased. It is true that other sources of income may be tapped. Perhaps the town will be asked to spend no more than the $200,000 which was the original figure.

North Adams, for instance, has a $2,900,000
project, of which they have to supply $400,000.
They have taken advantage of a number of governmental grants, and it may be presumed that Wilmington might do the same thing.

But if the sum that Wilmington is expected to spend is in excess of $200,000 we can expect a rebellion on the part of the tax payers - for the entire project still has to pass through a Town Meeting, for approval.

That Town Meeting, incidentally, will not be until after the regular Town Meeting in March, according to present plans - the idea being the entire meeting will be devoted to one subject only - which could make sense.

But we would like to ask a few questions - not defending any particular tax payer, although it would seem that there should be some protection.

Why should we move Weinberg's Store? Why should we move the bank building? Why should we move the telephone exchange?

All three are modern buildings, built according to our latest zoning laws, and have features that mean moving will be very expensive.

The bank building for instance - it will be remembered that the contractor ran into all sorts of difficulties when it was constructed - for the area was permeated with springs. A firm that proposes to move this building is going to have just as much trouble, without any doubt.

The telephone exchange (which some people say will not be moved, anyway) will be another expensive proposition. There are a number of cables which are quite expensive and difficult to install that will complicate matters, not to

TOWN NOTES

Weather

Last week didn't seem to be particularly rainy to us, may be we are just getting to use to the stuff - for when we got around to consulting the records we found rain on five days out of seven.

The only days on which we did not have rain was the 11th and 12th, and the total for the week was .66 inches.

Lake Smith

We have a note from one of our readers suggesting that if a hole is dug in the Smith gravel pit the result be named 'Lake Smith'.

Any suggestions for that hole up in North Wilmington?

No Whump

Eastern Massachusetts, at 11:45 Monday morning, experienced what seemed to be the blast of an explosion, or, as we have been terming things of late, a 'whump'. It was felt down in Wilmington Square, by people who assumed someone was blasting in the new shopping center project.

It was felt in Woburn, by people who thought someone was blasting in Winchester.

One North Wilmington resident who works in Boston was sure that it was the whump of all whumps, from his own balliwick.

We don't know, as of this moment, just what did happen. The Bedford Air Base reported they had no planes in the air.

Old Fashioned Tear Jerker

We were delighted to hear, this week, that the men of St. Dorothy's Church have formed an Actor's Guild - not so much that we care for Actor's Guild members, but that this particular group is planning to present a play, come next February, of the old fashioned tear jerking variety, right out of the 1880's or thereabouts.

We shall have to get a half a dozen or so tickets, for that one.

Posters

The aftermath of an election is always the large numbers of slowly disintegrating political posters to be seen on fences, trees, posts and abandoned buildings.

That's why it gives us pleasure to report that we elected a couple of gentlemen to the legislature. Not one of the posters put up for Tom Donohue or Frank Tanner were up a few days after the election. Donohue had all his taken down within 24 hours after the election.

Thwarted

Nothing is so disappointing to a politician as to be ready to make a speech, and then have the occasion taken away.

We could tell, by Frank Haggerty's eye, Monday night, that he was all primed on the subject of Urban Renewal - but the Permanent Building Committee asked for an executive meeting - and Frank's audience had to leave.

87 Years Old

We extend the best wishes of this paper to Herb Barrows, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will be 87 years old tomorrow.

Herb is amazing his friends with the remarkable comeback fight he is winning.

Lady Luck

It seems there were three sisters. One of them bought a ticket last year, for the drawing at St. Dorothy's Annual Turkey Whist, and wrote in her sister's name.

Of course, everybody knows, her sister won the first prize. This year the winner bought a ticket and wrote in the name of a third sister, down in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Of course, everybody knows, the first prize was won by the Fort Lauderdale lady.

It was Mrs. Alice Carroll of Main Street Tewksbury who was the lady who bought the ticket last year, for Mrs. Margaret Lacey, of Dinton Street, Melrose.

It was Mrs. Lacey who bought the ticket this year, for Mrs. J. J. Hurley of Fort Lauderdale.

mention the electronic equipment within the building.

And we can ask the same type of question about some of our other buildings - but we have just mentioned the more obvious ones.

Let us discuss the Burlington Avenue Bridge. It is proposed to lower the bridge, according to our understanding - a bridge which was only a few years ago raised to allow for the more modern trains of today.

There most certainly would be cheers from the B&M head offices in Boston, if the Town of Wilmington were to try such a thing. The B&M has been trying for years to get free of its responsibilities with this and every other bridge in Wilmington, not to mention Massachusetts. Remember the Shawsheen Avenue Bridge?

We can just hear Pat McGinnis leading the cheering squad.

If we are to lower that bridge it will mean lowering the railroad track.

If we lower that railroad track it will mean that the spring floods, which now creep across the track will increase.

Perhaps this has all been planned - perhaps the questions are needless - but if the Wilmington Housing Authority doesn't have the answers in the coming Town Meeting they will have no Urban Renewal, that is certain.

Let us consider the sewerage proposal. It is planned to install a septic tank system costing about $100,000. This tank system will require maintenance, forever and a day, which will cost more money.

Once upon a time this paper proposed that the coming sewerage system be considered as a part of the Urban Renewal project. We are told that the question has been examined, and rejected because there would not be "enough return" to the project.

We don't know what "enough return" is. Is it 1% - or 5%, or more?

When we consider that we are going to have to spend the money for the sewer project anyway and that the septic tank project will then be a duplication of efforts, even a $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% return would be profit, for the \$100,000 proposed to be spent on septic tanks would be saved - or at least that is the way it seems to this paper.

Let us not forget that the entire area is permeated with springs - witness the troubles at the bank building, and the slow freezing of the water in the Rotary Park Skating Rink.

It would be a fair statement to say that Mill Brook will have to be dredged, down to a point beyond the High School, if we develop this area, just to get rid of the present water. What will we have to do with the added water from such a huge septic tank installation?

Lastly, for this week, let us examine the proposal to move all the housing down to the area between Clark Street and Adelaide Street. This would have to get approval of the Board of Appeals - it cannot be done by government fiat. What do you think would happen, at such a hearing? Would the residents of Church Street and Middlesex Avenue sit idly by - or wouldn't they hit the roof instead?

It would be the liveliest meeting ever heard by the Board of Appeals, of that we have no doubt.

The housing has to be moved - yes, but why not into a district that is distinct and not a part of one of our better areas - why not, for instance into the area in which it is proposed to install the septic tanks?

NEVER A CHARGE FOR DELIVERY

ALL INDIANS - NO CHIEFS IN NEW WILMINGTON INDUSTRY

The Mystic Transformer Company is a company in which every one is an Indian, but no one is a chief.

A company with about 15 employees, each of them, including the president, Charles Whitehead, of West Acton, insists that there are no titles but that everyone is in himself a production superintendent, layout man, or what ever may be needed for the moment.

The company manufactures specialty transformers, not the kind that can be bought in any radio or electrical shop, but the kind that the growing electronics and missile industries need for their scientific operations.

It was a company that began with an idea, three or four years ago, and a cellar room in which to try out that idea. Then it moved to a plant in Winchester - a place of about 5,000 square feet.

Business kept on getting better - AVCO, for instance, one of their customers, found it necessary to expand, and was of course buying more to the type of product that the Mystic Transformer Company, Inc. and similar companies are making today.

AVCO moved to Wilmington. It wasn't that that made the Mystic Transformer Company want to move here - but move they would have to, and Wilmington was only one of a number of towns and cities in the area which they considered.

Someone told Fred Calabrese about the company - and without further ado Calabrese was ready to show them a number of good industrial sites. The 'Indians', in relating the story, all chorus that they were amazed, not only at what Fred Calabrese did, but the efficiency of the Town Hall as a whole.

'We just had to ask a question and we got the answer - immediately' one of them said. When we went to other towns it was the other story - no one knew what the other fellow was doing - no one could provide answers - but in Wilmington --!

'And' - another Indian chimed in 'your inspectors made us toe the mark, too. We liked it - no ifs, no ands, no buts. We have a foundation here we could build a seven story building on, in some places. Your sanitarian made us put in a leaching field much bigger than we thought we would need, but if he does it with us, he does it elsewhere too, and we aren't kicking' -- 'They were very business like.'

The building, not quite finished, is a single story one, of about 15,000 square feet. It is of steel bar joint construction, with a steel deck for a rook, insulated, with a tar and gravel covering. The building cost about $50,000 to erect.

The General Contractor, Don Giampietro, of the Alpha Structural Company, of Canton, claims that he, too, is an 'Indian'. In so far as he was able, he used exclusively Wilmington firms, in erecting the building. Herbert Pickering, of the Wilmington Plumbing Co. took care of the plumbing. Don Rossi, of Rossi & Quinton did the sewerage system. The Connolly Brothers, of Marion Street did a lot of work, and Earl Hamilton provided the painting and decorations.

They didn't give the reporter any opinion on whether or not Don Rossi, Herb, and Earl were also 'Indians'

The question is: Who is Mrs. Hurley going to buy a ticket for next year?

Politics

Rumors start to fly at this time of the year, concerning who is going to run for Select man, come next January.

One that we have run into quite frequently names Joe Courtney, ex TM of Wilmington, and Kenneth Lyons and E. Hayward Bliss, ex Selectmen, as candidates.

There is no truth to the rumor. We haven't had a chance to ask Lyons, but he stated several years ago that he was out of politics for good.

Another rumor has more basis. It seems that there are at least three petitions for a referendum of the Town Manager Plan now in circulation - very very secret circulation. Perhaps we could call it the 'Fry Fred movement'

Zoning Again

We don't know whether it was the story in TIME magazine, or something from the Department of Commerce, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, but Wilmington's zoning has now become a subject for study by the University of Michigan.

The University wrote a letter to the town recently, asking for details, and photographs.

Snappy Band

Those who attended the game with Lynnfield last Saturday heard the finest High School band ever to visit Wilmington so far this year.

They might not have been in perfect step while they were marching, but their music was about all that anyone could have asked for.

When one considers that the band has only been in existence for two years one can predict that here is a band that is going to be heard of, in the future. Just keep your eye on them, that's all we ask

Lynnfield Wins (fr Fr Pg)

Rooney Scamper

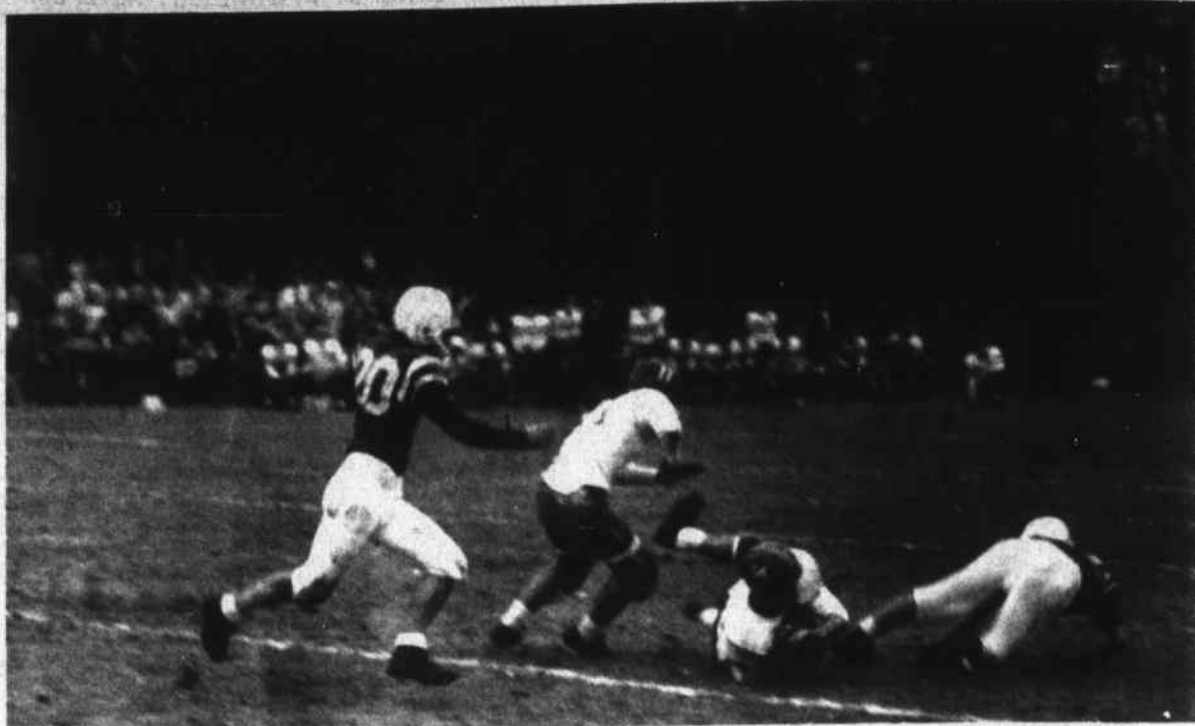

Wilmington fans had their one chance to cheer early in the second period when Bill Rooney broke loose from his own 14, straight-armed his way up the right side-line, and finally was rolled out of bounds by a desperate safety man 63 yards later on Lynnfield's 23. This particular effort represented more than fifty percent of the total offense displayed by our boys in the entire afternoon, and was one of two Wilmington penetrations of enemy territory.

Spectacular Punt Return

When Billy Rooney punted out of apparent danger to the Wilmington 49 yard line with less than a minute remaining in the game, a scoreless tie seemed certain. However, Freshman defensive halfback Frank Bernardino had other ideas. His artfully faked handoff to star halfback Donnegan sent the on-rushing Wilmington defense off on a wild goose chase while he tucked the ball under his arm and fled down the left side-line for the game's one touchdown. It remained Donnegan's privilege to frost the cake by running the conversion for two more points.

Summing Up

Wilmington was beaten in the fundamentals - tackling and blocking...JOE CASEY, and KEN SPINELLI (who intercepted an enemy pass late in the game) bul-warked the defense to stop several Lynnfield drives. ED PALINO and the MC CORMACK BOYS were also outstanding..... After Lynnfield had scored, Billy Rooney made a valiant attempt to run back the kick-off which followed all the way for a Wilmington tally, but an eager Lynnfield defense snowed him under at the Wilmington 49 of the type of football they played, it was surprising to learn that this was only their second win of 1958...Tewksbury lost to Methuen on Saturday by a 25-0 margin.

Recreation Program

The fact that our town and an enterprising Recreation Commission make the high school gymnasium available several evenings a week for other than high school students perhaps is taken for granted by some of us. Although I personally have never taken advantage of these facilities, it is my belief that the people who made this program possible deserve an accolade. Time was -- and it wasn't so long ago -- when a high school gym was for high school students only, by gum!!

Now is the time of year to remember old friendships

And the warmest way to "keep in touch" with family and friends far away is by telephone. Nothing is quite so real... quite so friendly... as the sound of your voice.

There's no need to wait for the actual holidays to call. This is the holiday season. This time of year, every day is a good day to call old friends. Remember, long distance rates are especially low every night and on Sundays.

You can call coast-to-coast for $2.00 or less for the first 3 minutes — station-to-station, nights and Sundays, excluding federal excise tax.

THE TYPE OF SITE PLANNING PROPOSED BY THE PERMANENT BUILDING COMMITTEE. A sketch prepared by the Permanent Building Committee, to show the Selectmen last Monday, of the type of Municipal Planning they propose, encompassing Town Hall, Police Station and Public Library on one site. Only the Police Station is planned for the immediate future, the Committee stated. The question the Committee asked the Selectmen was whether they should plan to build a Police Station as part of an integral unit, as shown, or if they should go ahead and build a Police Station, on the site voted by the town, without any integrated planning.

ward on hinges. The walls were rough-plastered, but there was no ceiling. The galleries also ran around three sides of the building. According to earlier writers, 'the house was filled with strong benches having backs.' The interior as well as the exterior of the building was unpainted.

It must have been with a great sense of accomplishment and gratitude that these early settlers walked up the aisle to their own particular pew in this, their own meeting house. The seating arrangement in those days was neither by chance nor by choice. The men sat on one side of the center aisle and the women on the other. Directly below the pulpit on the first seat of the middle aisle sat the selectman, on the opposite side, their wives. In the third seat sat some of the more wealthy and respected of the townspeople, and their wives, across the aisle. And so the quality tapered down until on the rear benches we find the young men who had recently graduated from under the tithing man's rod.

For the benefit of the young people present, perhaps I should explain the tithing men. These men, two of them, were elected at the town meeting. It was their duty to stop any 'Sabbath breaking', and to superintend the behavior of the children in the meeting house. In those days they sat in the gallery. The tithing men carried long, slender rods which the children felt on their shoulders when they misbehaved.

Although there was no organ to help with the singing, they did have a choir, which sat in the gallery, directly opposite the minister. The 'Quiristers' too, were elected in town meeting, 'as often as needful!'

Having provided themselves with a house of worship, the next task of the congregation was to settle a minister. The gravity with which the town treated these religious matters is indicated by a vote taken in town meeting, to set aside a day of Prayer for guidance.

Mr James Varney was chosen the first minister of the town. With his ordination on Oct 24, 1733, the church was embodied with seventeen male members. Women, not being legal voters in those days, were not permitted to embody a church. They joined later in the same year, and have been carrying their full share of the burden ever since.

Rev Isaac Morrill was the second and certainly one of the greatest ministers our church has ever known. He was ordained and settled over this church on his twenty-third birthday, and continued in this office until his death, fifty-two years later. Known as the 'fighting parson', he served as chaplain both in the French and Indian Wars and in the Revolution.

MISSIONARY SERVICE AND BUFFET SUPPER AT
BAPTIST CHURCH

A Buffet Supper and Missionary Service for the whole family will be held on Sunday evening Nov. 23rd. Miss E. Mildred Comer, a resident of Woburn will be our guest Missionary. Miss Comer has served as a Director for International Child Evangelism Fellowship in Peru, South America since 1947. Miss Comer is a graduate of Providence Bible Institute and Child Evangelism Institute. The program of the fellowship is an interdenominational one to 'Capture the Children of Christ' by means of the Children's Home Bible Class known as the 'Good News Club'. A strong Teacher Training program is carried on to prepare the nationals as teachers for the clubs, Sunday Schools and Daily Vacation Bible Schools. A literature depot is maintained in Lima, Peru making teaching materials available to nationals and missionaries in all of the country.

Miss Comer has travelled extensively throughout Peru assisting nationals and missionaries in children's work. At present she is on furlough and since April has been busily engaged in deputation throughout New England. Miss Comer has a fine collection of slide and colorful curios and native costume.

Buffet Supper to be served at 6:30 p.m. followed by the evening service at 7:30 p.m.

GIVING THANKSGIVING TO ALL THE WORLD

During the Thanksgiving Season each of America's three great religious faiths--Catholic, Protestant and Jewish--is making special appeals for funds and materials with which to carry on world-wide programs of assistance to hungry, homeless and destitute people abroad.

Protestant churches, in individual and community service and other efforts, are emphasizing the Share Our Surplus program of Church World Service to finance free distribution of U.S. surplus food commodities to the undernourished. Coincidentally, Catholic churches are stressing The Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Collection of Catholic Relief Services with a goal of ten million pounds of good used clothing for distribution to refugees and other victims of need in scores of distress areas.

And the United Jewish Appeal, as the instrument of American Jews, currently is asking aid for reconstruction and rehabilitation programs for recent refugees and other needy people abroad.

In fighting poverty, disease, hunger and homelessness at the individual level, these programs of our religious faiths make a vital and unique contribution to peace, strengthening the bonds of spiritual brotherhood between Americans and their neighbors abroad.

From these specific efforts for which support is asked and through other of their programs, our religious overseas relief agencies minister to many millions of victims of war, famine, disaster and aggression, distributing hundreds of millions of pounds of food, clothing and medicines to needy and hungry people in virtually every free country of the world, supporting orphanages, clinics, hospitals and many programs of rehabilitation.

Operated to a great extent abroad through dedicated voluntary assistance, the relief programs of our religious faiths actually account for more than 80% of all of America's voluntary overseas relief efforts and are carried on at lowest possible cost.

In their 1958 free distributions of U.S. surplus foods, for instance, the religious agencies' shipments abroad will approximate a billion and a half pounds of agricultural commodities on a ratio of more than three hundred pounds of food for each $1.00 of contribution. As Americans respond through their houses of worship to the current overseas aid appeals of their religious faiths, they are indeed acting in the true spirit of Thanksgiving Day.

And for those in distress abroad to whom they thus make assistance possible they will be making every day in the year a day of thanksgiving.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

On Thanksgiving morning, Thursday, November 27, at 8:30 a.m. the Annual Thanksgiving Service, sponsored by the Wilmington Council of Churches will be held in the Wilmington Baptist Church. Mr. Eliot Castillo, Pastor of the host church will bring the morning message. The Senior Choir of the host church will provide special music and the pastors of the other churches in Wilmington will participate in the worship hour.

The service has been planned so that all young people and adults, who are planning to attend the annual community football game on the high school field, will have plenty of time to find their places before the game begins.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT TO SPEAK AT LOYALTY
SUNDAY SERVICE

The Reverend Willard C Arnold District Superintendent of the Lynn District of the Methodist Church will bring the morning message on Loyalty Sunday, Nov. 23, at the 10:30 a.m. worship hour. Mr. Arnold, who has given excellent leadership on the District and has provided great help in the building of the new church will preach on the topic, 'The Church of Tomorrow.' During the worship hour, a group of new members will be received into the fellowship of the church by the Reverend Richard Harding.

As this is the Annual Loyalty Sunday Service, each family has been extended an invitation to attend, and it is hoped that each family of the church will be in attendance or represented. The Church Loyalty Program will begin in the afternoon, when some seventy visitors will call in the home of the parish concerning their stewardship responsibilities for the year 1959. Families have been asked wherever possible to remain at home on Sunday, in order that the caller may have an opportunity to visit with them.

CHURCH LOYALTY VISITORS HOLD TRAINING PROGRAM

At a supper meeting, to be held Friday, Nov. 21, at 6:30 p.m., the men of the church, who will be visiting in the homes on Loyalty Sunday will come together for inspiration and instruction under the leadership of William Stickney, the 1958 General Chairman of the Every Member Canvass. Mr. Stickney will again point out to these church leaders their own responsibilities as to stewardship, and counsel them in helping the families of the parish see their responsibilities as to stewardship.

The following definition of Christian Stewardship has been emphasized these past weeks throughout the entire church: CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP is the practice of systematic and proportionate giving of time, abilities and material possessions, based on the conviction that these are a trust from God, to be used in His service for the benefit of all mankind in grateful acknowledgment of Christ's redeeming love.

In proportion to the congregation's response, a stronger missionary program will be possible, the continuation of the leadership of a student pastor for the year 1959, the increased maintenance of church facilities, and the strengthening of the local church program. In order that this program be carried on, it will require the sacrificial response of all of the church families.

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

ST DOROTHY NEWS

CYO members are to meet tonight at 7:30 at the church. Please bring your missals.

The CYO will conduct a cake sale at St. Dorothy's Hall on Saturday, at 10 am.

Religious instruction classes are on Saturday at 9, and on Thursday at 6:45.

Next Sunday is to be Communion Day for the boys of the parish.

We know that the parish rejoices at the elevation of Cardinal Cushing. Now that he has given us the word to start construction of our new church next spring each family will be glad to put its shoulder to the wheel, for this purpose. It will require thousands of dollars to build this edifice and we urgently appeal to each and everyone to do his just share.

We are grateful to the Blitz Committee for their work. We are most happy to announce the Turkey Whist, in Villanova Hall was most successful, and extend our thanks to Mr. Ernest Crispo and his committee, all of whom put a tremendous amount of effort and work into the project.

We are most grateful to Father Croke, of St. Thomas for the use of Villanova Hall.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES SALE

There will be a sale of religious articles in the rear of St Thomas on Sun. Nov 23 & 30 between each mass. There will be rosaries, missals, Bibles, religious calendars and various statuary. This is an excellent opportunity for everyone to do some Christmas shopping early and at the same time benefit St Thomas Church.

WILMINGTON SCHOOL OF BALLET

On the evening of Nov. 17, Miss Wanece Chislett teacher, had a meeting to select a few people to help her with her new Regional Ballet Co. for the Children and Mrs. Austin volunteered her assistance at making costumes for the girls and boys who join the organization. Movies were shown entitled 'Great Moments of the Dance'

The first performance will be given at their Christmas party Refreshments were served with the help of Mrs Austin Rounds and Mrs Ralph Chislett. A good time was had by all.

TALKING ABOUT PITCAIRN ISLAND

Capt. Irving Johnson, USNR found a fellow visitor to Pitcairn Island, in the person of Commander Fred Melzar, who visited the island during the war, while in command of an American submarine. To the right is Mrs. John Hayward, chairman of the Sabra D. J. Carter Lecture Committee, and to the left is Harold Melzar, Commander Melzar's father.

The lecture, 'Pitcairn to Zanzibar' was one of the best attended in years. 140

WOMEN'S CLUB OBSERVE AMERICAN HOME DAY TODAY

The Wilmington Women's Club is holding an all day meeting in observance of American Home Day today starting at 10:30 at the Congregational Church. The program includes morning and afternoon speakers and a luncheon and music, after 10:30 morning coffee.

At 11 Mrs. J. Tellotson Moses will speak on and demonstrate the arranging of Christmas greens.

In the afternoon the pupils of Mrs. William Carver will offer a musical program. Mrs. Anna Alderman Bliss will talk about and display her collection of antique cups.

The American Home Day committee with the help of the Art Committee have planned the arrangements and set up various home exhibits and pictures. Mrs. Vaughan Talbert is Chairman of the American Home Day Committee, assisted by Mrs. Thomas March, Mrs. Andrew May, and Mrs. Meyer Weinberg. Chairman of the Art Committee is Mrs. Corydon Coombs, assisted by Mrs. Wm Carver, Mrs. Frank Darling, Mrs. Vaughan Talbert, Mrs. Walter Kirkell, Mrs. John Tobey, Mrs. Arthur Williams.

The luncheon is being provided ed by the Ways & Means committee under the direction of Mrs. Raymond McClure and Mrs. Robert Michelson.

JANICE WESTCOTT BRIDE OF ALFRED G. MICHAUD

In a 7 pm ceremony in the Congregational Church, on Nov. 15th., Miss Janice Westcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Westcott of Forest St. became the bride of Mr. Alfred G. Michaud, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Marks, of Douglas Ave. Burlington.

The bride, a member of the Swain-Gowing family of Wilmington wore a gown of Chantilly lace, over taffeta, with a finger tip veil, and carried a white Bible, covered with white roses and stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

The Rev. Stanley Cummings of the Congregational Church performed the ceremony.

Miss Judith Blanchard, of King Street, a friend of the bride, was the maid of honor. Miss Blanchard wore a blue and silver lace gown, over tulle, with matching headpiece, and carried a Colonial bouquet.

Miss Betty Sue Swain of 429 South Street, Reading, and Miss Sandra Lee Goodearl of Swain Road, both relatives of the bride, were her bridesmaids. Both were dressed in gowns of pink lace over taffeta, with matching headpieces and carried Colonial bouquets.

Little Miss Beth Ann Westcott, 3 year old sister of the bride, was the flower girl, dressed in a full length yellow lace gown over taffeta, with a headpiece of roses, and she carried a basket of roses and daisies.

Mr. Charles Gillis of Cambridge, a friend of the groom, served as best man.

The ushers were Mr. James Michaud of Burlington, brother of the groom, Mr. Robert Westcott of Cochrane Road, and Aviation Machinist Third Class David Westcott, USN, of Key West Florida, brothers of the bride, together with Mr. Robert Chambers of Mill Road, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Grange Hall.

Mrs. Westcott chose a gown of blue, with white accessories and wore a pink corsage, while the mother of the groom chose a gown of pink, with pink accessories, and a corsage of red roses, to wear in the reception line.

Miss Etna Burns, of Forest Street, was in charge of the Guest Book.

The new Mrs. Michaud attended Wilmington High School, and has been at home for the past few years.

Her new husband is a graduate of Burlington High School, Class of 1949, and served in the US Marine Corps, with the rank of Corporal, during the Korean War. He is employed by the Gilbelt Lumber Company, as a carpenter.

The newly married couple plan to make their home on Brand Avenue, in Wilmington.

'SAILOR TOM' IS DEAD

Joseph L. Thompson, known to many of the older residents of Wilmington as 'Sailor Tom' of Reading, died of a heart attack, at Sailor's Snug Harbor in Duxbury, on Nov. 15th. He was 57 years old.

Born in Jackson Mississippi, 'Sailor Tom' served in both the US Army and Navy, leaving the Navy in 1933. He started a small restaurant in Reading in 1935, with three booths, and a two burner stove, which soon mushroomed to one of the larger and best known eating places in New England. Several acres of land nearby were landscaped, with artificial waterfalls, and a fair sized menagerie. After World War II Sailor Tom bought a PT boat and installed it near his restaurant.

He closed the restaurant in 1955, and the property is now the site of a supermarket.

MANY APPLICANTS FOR OLD AGE HOUSING HAVE FORGOTTEN TO COMPLETE FORMS

Old folks of Wilmington who have made application to the Wilmington Housing Authority for housing in the Old Age Housing Project, have, in many instances forgotten to complete their application forms.

The project is now nearing completion, Robert Michelson, the director, advises. It is imperative that completed applications be sent to him, at Box 248, Wilmington, if old folks want to be considered.

Michelson also advises that any person needing help can call at the Old Age Housing office, 418 Main Street, where assistance will be given in filling out applications.

CAKE SALE SATURDAY

The CYO of St. Dorothy's Church will hold a cake sale, Saturday morning, at St. Dorothy's Hall.

BOOK AUCTION AND SALE ON SATURDAY NOVEMBER 22

As advertised elsewhere in the paper, there will be an auction and sale of used books on Saturday, November 22, from 2-9 p.m. downstairs in the Educational Building of the Wilmington Methodist Church. You are invited, one and all, to come in and browse around in the building. The books are good and inexpensive. There will be all types from reference books, novels, to comic books, and records. Come and see what there is to suit your taste.

S.D.J. CARTER

Mrs. John Hayward, chairman of the S.D.J. Carter lecture committee introduced the speaker. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Joseph Slater; Secretary: Guy E. Nichols, Tres; Mrs. Edward M. Neilson, Mrs. Alfred Allen.

WILDWOOD PARENTS' CLUB

The next regular meeting of the Wildwood Parents' Club will be held on November 24, at 8 p.m. It is most urgent that all members attend in order to properly discuss the proposed changes to the by-laws as announced at our last regular meeting.

The guest speaker will be our own Sgt. John Imbimbo of the Wilmington Police Department, who has spent about 15 years in all phases of police work. Sgt. Imbimbo will direct his talk to children's safety to and from school and after school. This is a subject that should be of interest to all parents, as it is most important to have the children supervised at these times.

The attendance banner will be awarded to the class having the largest number of parents in attendance at the meeting.
